

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
airing of "Stolen Honor" so close to the presidential election is a clear
abrogation of their
public broadcasting
license. It is also a good example of
why we need a more diverse spectrum of
broadcasters, not less.